

NOAA Teacher Workshop

Climate Change Here and Now:

Impacts on Islands, Coastlines, Ocean and Atmosphere

Saturday, April 28, 2012
8 am to 12pm
Waikiki Aquarium Classroom

NOAA national and local climate experts will educate teachers (Middle School and up) about the impacts of climate variability and change.

Topics to be covered:

- Climate Impacts on Islands and Coastal Erosion
- Climate Change and Oceans: Ocean Acidification and Food
- Climate Change Impacts on Local Resources
- Additional Climate Resources
- Classroom Activities

Registration fee: $10 includes Climate resources, NOAA tote, Hard Rock Café gift card, continental breakfast and snacks. Checks made payable to: Friends of Waikiki Aquarium

Space is limited. To make reservations email: maryloufoley@waquarium.org

Mail completed application and registration fee by April 15.

Send to: MaryLou Foley, Waikiki Aquarium 2777 Kalakaua Avenue, Honolulu, HI 96815.

Metered street parking available. Fifty cents an hour. Free until 10am.

Name: _____
School: _____
Grade/Subject: _____
Email: _____
Mailing Address: _____
Phone Number: _____

Please answer the following question:

What information do you hope to gain about climate change by participating in this event?

_____

University of Hawai'i-Mānoa · Waikīkī Aquarium · 2777 Kalākaua Avenue · Honolulu, HI 96815
(808) 923-9741 · FAX: (808) 923-1771

The University of Hawai'i is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution